BIOINFORMATICS.CA – Canadian Bioinformatics Workshop – Application/Registration Website Privacy and Confidentiality Policy

In addition to the conditions for the use of personal information specified in the OICR Terms and Conditions (<http://www.oicr.on.ca/termsandconditions.htm>), the Canadian Bioinformatics Workshops (CBW), through its workshop application website <http://bioinformatics.ca/workshops/application>, collects information on the workshops you wish to attend, your personal contact information, country of residence and citizenship, education and career curriculum vitae, previous bioinformatics experience, current research project and relevance of workshop to this project, and personal expectations of the workshop. Personal contact information is collected for the purpose of communicating workshop details to applicants selected to attend a workshop and for informing you of upcoming workshop schedules. An education and career curriculum vitae, bioinformatics experience, research project and expectations are collected to assist the review committee in selecting the best and ideally suited applicants for each workshop, and for verifying an applicant's identity and workshop intent.

Only successful applicants for a given workshop will be provided with the link to the registration page. Registration information such as online credit card transactions are handled by PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal"). Personal information provided as part of online credit card transactions are stored and processed on PayPal computers in the United States in compliance with applicable United States federal and state regulations. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by PayPal in the manner and for the purposes set out at the time that your credit card information is requested. Refer to PayPal, Inc.'s privacy policy for details on how it secures your personal information (https://cms.paypal.com/ca/cgi-bin/marketingweb?cmd=_render-content&content_ID=ua/Privacy_full&locale.x=en_US <https://cms.paypal.com/ca/cgi-bin/marketingweb?cmd=_render-content&content_ID=ua/Privacy_full&locale.x=en_US> <<http://www.paypal.ca>>).

CBW will also collect SEO statistics for improving the site's online presence and impact.

If you choose to provide us with additional information about yourself through an email message, any identifying information that you provide will be maintained per stated purpose.

CBW will maintain the security and confidentiality of your personal information. Access to this information will be limited to the CBW site administrators as per the stated purpose. Access to names and affiliation of applicants selected to attend a given workshop will be limited to the events staff and workshop faculty for the purpose of producing name badges and aligning teaching material, respectively.

The information will be retained for the duration of CBW's viability and you will be notified if the intended purpose for the collection of this information changes. If the CBW is no longer viable, all personal information will be destroyed in a confidential and secure manner.
